

Luisa Currado

Luisa Currado

- - Born in 1972
 - Graduated in Biological Science (1997, Università degli Studi di Roma "Tor Vergata")
 - Authorized to practice as Biologist (1998)
 - Involved in the Industrial Property since 1999: expert at the Patent Desk of the Science and Technology Park of the University of Rome "Tor Vergata" and at the "Patent Information Point", Patent Office of the University of Rome "La Sapienza" (2000 - 2001)
 - From 2001 to 2006, practising as consultant in the patent and trademark field at the firm Studio Ferrario in Rome.
 - From 2006, associated as patent attorney to the Studio Leone & Spadaro
 - Italian Patent and Trademark Attorney, European Trademark and Design Attorney, authorised to practice before the Italian Patent and Trademark office, the World Intellectual Property Organization, The Office for the Harmonization of the Internal Market, the UE Office for the Plant Varieties in the field of patent, trademark, design and plant varieties.
 - Mainly focused on the drafting and the prosecution of patent applications, and the registration of design and trademarks in Italy and abroad, with particular reference to the biotech field and the pharmaceutical field, on behalf of Italian and foreign clients.
 - Author of articles concerning the protection of the inventions, mainly at the University level.
- - Member of the Italian IP Consultant Institute, admitted to the Italian Association of Biologists.
- - Languages: Italian, English, Spanish