

Lo Studio Associato Leone & Spadaro

Studio Associato Leone & Spadaro

Studio Associato Leone & Spadaro offers a complete series of services for the protection of Industrial Property. Professionals of the Firm are skilled in all fields of technology, particularly in the different engineering applications as well as of chemistry, biotechnology and nanotechnology.

Based in Rome, L&S operates also in Padua and, thank to a professional cooperation agreement with the Patent Firm Muller & Schubert , in Munich, close to the Headquarters of the European Patent Office and in Berlin.

Our Firm offer to our Italian and International Clients the most complete assistance to increase the value of their industrial property, from patentability assessment, search in the state of the art, evaluation of possible conflicts and setting up alternative strategies, drafting and filing of national, European, International and any foreign patent application, thanks to our network of foreign attorneys, prosecution of the application with full technical assistance during substantive examination, allowance and maintenance of the patent.

Same services are offered for trademarks and designs, including evaluations of their distinctive character, filing and prosecution of national, community, international and foreign trademark. Software and semiconductor topographies.

Our offer is completed by assisting our Clients in protecting different aspects of their Intellectual Property also by means of Author's Right.

The Firm assists Clients in any administrative task concerning IP.

Our Firm assist our Clients in litigation, both directly and in cooperation with well-known Law Firms, in prosecution of the case before the Court, in settlement and also in drafting agreements and in negotiations.

The professional staff is fully qualified for the representation before the Italian patent and Trademark Office, the European Patent office, the Office for the Harmonization of the Internal Market (EU Design and Trademarks), The World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO). Through a network of foreign associates, the firm can establish any kind of exclusive right in any European and non-European Country.

The firm is also committed in the Professional Education, through courses and seminars organized together with leading Universities and Institutes, attended by patent and administrative practitioners and by IP executives.